	Fluency & Accuracy This course has been designed for upper intermediate and advanced ESL students who are hoping to become more fluent and accurate through a rigorous review of problematic grammar structures. Through daily articles, students are exposed to grammar and vocabulary structures in context. Techniques to improve vocabulary retention are covered. Students need to participate in discussions.	●				●				●	●	●
	Current Affairs This course has been designed for advanced ESL students who are hoping to become more fluent and comfortable with speaking English. The course's primary focus is on vocabulary. Readings & discussions are the two main activities; however, other media such as local newspapers, television shows and films are also incorporated. Students improve their reading comprehension and oral communication through a diverse range of activities relating to current events.					●				●	●	●
	Understanding English Learning rules is an important part of studying any language, but unfortunately, the rules of the English language can be very complicated and are difficult to apply outside of the classroom. In this class, students will take a close look at the patterns among English words, sentences and conversations in order to help them choose the best way to express an idea, and also give them the skills they need to understand unfamiliar English in everyday life, outside of school.		●					2B	3A
	Semi Private Lessons In small groups of 2 to 6 students, students review grammar and vocabulary that they have already been introduced to and some new ideas. These lessons contain a specific topic or focus as well as specific vocabulary and grammar structures but are not as structured as the inlingua morning lessons. Various materials and approaches are used to promote participation and improvement. These lessons provide a more relaxed environment and students can receive more attention from the teacher.					●		●	●	●	●	●
